

SEDGLEY LOCAL HISTORY Society

www.sedgleylocalhistory.org.uk

Programme ~ 2022 / 2023

SEPTEMBER 2022

NO MEETING

THURSDAY 13TH OCTOBER 2022 – 7:30 pm

7th Andrew Barnett & Trevor Genge Memorial Lecture

The History of the Co-op in the Black Country (and Birmingham)

Ned Williams tells the story of retailing based on a social ideal.

THURSDAY 10TH NOVEMBER – 7:30 pm

The Kinver Light Railway

Dr Paul Collins recalls the tramway from Amblecote to the Staffordshire village.

THURSDAY 12TH JANUARY 2023 – 7:30 pm

So You Think You Know the Black Country

Members & Visitors Evening – Enjoy some not too serious quizzing.

THURSDAY 9TH FEBRUARY – 7:30 pm

Emma Sproson: Suffragette and Wolverhampton's first female councillor

Sara Trayers has researched the colourful life of 'Red Emma'.

THURSDAY 9TH MARCH – 7:30 pm

Lord Horatio Nelson – 'Britain's Greatest Naval Hero'

Max Keen appears in period costume to vividly portray Nelson's life and times.

THURSDAY 11TH MAY – 7:30 pm

Annual General Meeting followed by

Picture Postcards from the Black Country

Ian Bott presents a miscellany of evocative images from the past.

THURSDAY 8TH JUNE – 7 pm

Visit – 'Top Church', Dudley A guided tour.

Individual talks - £2

VISITORS ARE ALWAYS WELCOME

St. Andrew's Church, Bilston Street
SEDGLEY

~*~