

SEDGLEY LOCAL HISTORY Society

www.sedgleylocalhistory.org.uk

Programme ~ 2023 / 2024

SEPTEMBER 2023

NO MEETING

THURSDAY 12TH OCTOBER 2023 – 7:30 pm

8th Andrew Barnett & Trevor Genge Memorial Lecture

The Diggum Uppers

Kevin Goodman, a medical historian, tells the story of body snatchers and grave diggers in the Black Country.

THURSDAY 9TH NOVEMBER – 7:30 pm

Entertainment in Wolverhampton

Ned Williams recalls cinemas, theatres, fairs and circuses.

THURSDAY 11TH JANUARY 2024 – 7:30 pm

Film Night

Members & Visitors Evening – Enjoy some short films with a Black Country flavour.

THURSDAY 8TH FEBRUARY – 7:30 pm

The Black Country Miners: A Struggle for Justice – 1850 to 1926

Keith Robinson illustrates this fight through the hardships of individuals and families. His book is a superb piece of social history.

THURSDAY 14TH MARCH – 7:30 pm

Lord Horatio Nelson – ‘Britain’s Greatest Naval Hero’

Max Keen appears in period costume to vividly portray Nelson’s life and times.

THURSDAY 9TH MAY – 7:30 pm

Annual General Meeting followed by

The Windrush Generation – A Walsall Connection

Jennifer Blake has recorded the experiences of West Indians living in the town.

THURSDAY 13TH JUNE – 7 pm

Visit – Wren’s Nest Highlights – Lime Kilns & Seven Sisters A guided tour.

Individual talks - £2

VISITORS ARE ALWAYS WELCOME

St. Andrew’s Church, Bilston Street
SEDGLEY
